hamlets, nearest their homes, and show their patriotism, devotion to the country and their fellow citizens. Intention to support the party which stands for protection, sound money and good government, by having patrol speeches and such other expedients as may be necessary to bring the party to the polls and make the day a general holiday as far as possible. It is to be hoped that Republicans everywhere will unite to dedicate the day to the protection of the Union.

M. A. HANNA, Chairman.

GROWING ESTIMATES FOR MCKINLEY.

The estimates of Major McKinley's probability in Illinois are being pushed a notch or two higher almost daily by the managers of the State campaign. It is now predicted at the State Committee's headquarters that the Republican electoral ticket will win next Tuesday, notwithstanding the 75,000 votes lost

"Our reports indicate that there are in the neighborhood of 970,000 voters on the list. We figure that from one reason or another 45,000 will not vote. This would indicate a total poll of 925,000. The best figures we have been able to get show that, in round numbers, 30,000 of these will go to the Sound Money Democratic and Prohibition candidates, thus leaving 895,000 to be divided between the Republican and Popocratic tickets. We feel certain that McKinley and Hobart will receive 60 per cent or 537,000 of them. That, of course, would give Bryan 358,000, making McKinley and Hobart plurality 179,000. It is impossible to estimate whether Tanner will run behind or ahead. We now have every reason to believe he will receive practically the solid Republican vote, and a large percentage of the Sound Money Democratic vote. The Democrats who vote for McKinley as a rebuke to the war-for-slavery policy will also vote for Tanner, in order to rebuke Alldredge, because of his prime mover in leading the party in Illinois astray. Some of the wavering voters will go to McKinley, but not

Dr. Jamieson said, and Chairman Hitt of the State Committee confirmed the statement, that the XIVth is the only Congress district considered hopeful now. However, they are confident that General Kinaker will carry it by a small majority.

As to the Legislative bodies, both these bodies say that at the very long calculation giving the Democrats everything they are even remotely entitled to, the Republicans will carry a majority on joint ballot in the next assembly.

It is confidently expected that the majority will be much larger. This insures the election of a Republican Senator.

LATEST REPORTS FROM WISCONSIN.

Reports received today by Colonel Hann, Chief of the Speakers' Bureau of the Republican National

"I estimate that the State is safely Republican by 60,000 to 80,000 plurality," says Mr. Coe. "Both branches of the Legislature will be strongly Republican, and all the ten Congress districts will elect Republican Representatives. The Ist District will be carried by the Republicans by a good plurality, the II<sup>d</sup> by 2,500, the III<sup>d</sup> by 7,000, the IVth by 3,000, the Vth by 5,000, the VIth by 8,000, the VIIth by 9,000, the VIIIth by 6,000, the IXth by 9,000 and the Xth by 10,000."

WOULD-BE MARTYRS DISAPPOINTED.
Instead of two rival parades, with the danger of a collision and disturbance of the public peace, Chicago will have to resign herself to the thought of having no parade at all next Saturday night. As the situation will be exciting and interesting enough without it, the abandoned "feature" will hardly be missed. The Republican workmen are satisfied with their triumphant vindication in court, and have decided to surrender the permit and leave the field—or rather the streets of the city—free to their rivals. They will do their parading, and a good deal of it, no doubt, after election. The charge that the Democratic managers were hoping for defeat in court for the purpose of making political capital and appealing to the sympathies of the sentimental, finds ample warrant, not only in the announcement that the Democratic parade has been abandoned, but also in the ridiculous manifesto issued apropos of Judge Tuley's decision. Notwithstanding the conspicuous soundness and fairness of the Court's reasoning, notwithstanding the fact that the refusal to issue an injunction was expressly based upon hostility to "government by injunction" and opposition to arbitrary and high-handed judicial usurpation of authority, the manifesto issued by those posing as martyrs and victims insults the Court and the community by accusing Judge Tuley of making a new departure in the direction of police tyranny and absoluteness. The manifesto pretends that there is nothing startling in the idea that the discretionary action of the Police Department cannot be the subject of a prohibitory injunction.

cannot be the duty of a promissory injunction by the Court, but must be left to future remedy at law, after the overt act of injustice had been committed." Upon this point "The Post" says very truly:
